Food and Fellowship

Announcing the opening of the WolfPack Café! We now have a member-run café that features choices of soup, sandwiches, treats and surprises each available for $0.25 up to $1. We are now using this as a tool to enhance job training skills for members interested in food services and money management and decision making for all members. Bringing money nightly is fine but we do recommend pre-paid cards as an option for those that eat dinner here regularly.

Special Olympics– WolfPack's Summer Sports Season

It is Softball Season! Please contact Crim (509-844-2760) or Laura Piper (509-844-2860) for information and sign up.... Sign up for regional competition will close July 1st unless otherwise announced...

Also watch the sport's news in July as Special Olympics National Games 2018 are being hosted in Seattle, WA.

Special Events:

- We will be posting a list of projects that need to be completed in a timely fashion during the next month or so. Some tasks are very small and even the largest tasks should be able to be completed in a day... Family, friends, group homes, Project id volunteers and those who support our work at Project id, please pick a project and sign up to do that one (or more) project(s)). Watch fir the list on Facebook , our website or at the Wolf Den in the next week or so!

Attention: Program Fees

Attention! Payment of $25 per month program fee is due the first of each month unless other arrangements have been made. We are sorry for any inconvenience or distress this causes but we are committed to staying open, providing quality services and keeping our Program Fees at a low rate. Remember, you can sign up for automatic withdrawal via a credit or debit card if that is easier. (We do not have the capacity to do a transfer of funds at this time – only via debit or credit card...) We do not refuse anyone for inability to donate. If you can not pay please let us know so we don't misuse administrative services trying to connect with you. We also ask for $5 donation for those that come sporadically and do not to do the month plan... Paperwork/Application is mandatory for all attendees regardless of the frequency of their attendance. Questions? Call us at 509-475-7185.

General info:

1. We are always working hard to decrease relationship drama at The Den. Please be aware that these kind of behaviors are against our Code of Conduct and persons engaging in spreading rumors or creating drama can be subject to our disciplinary procedures just as those that act out behaviorally.
 2. Washrooms are to be used one at a time at The Den. No group bathroom breaks!
 3. We are a smoke, vape and chew free zone except in our designated smoking area. Please try not to take smoke breaks during your 3 hours here. If you can not refrain we allow one 5 minute smoke break with permission and/or escort.
 4. No one is allowed to exit the building alone without permission and/or escort after arrival
 5. We also prohibit use of personal electronic equipment (phones, tablets, iPods, etc) without specific permission. If we perceive it to be a problem for a member or a group we reserve the right to ask them to check the device in until departure time unless needed for a specific urgent request.
- All activities and areas are open and available for members use every night we are open. While activities may be suggested (by the evening's volunteers), the purpose of The Den is to allow members to make their own choices and plans with their peers.

Project id is a volunteer run organization! If you care or love someone with an intellectual disability or your heart responds to these individuals please consider volunteering with us. We have needs for volunteers for facilities maintenance, kitchen food prep and/or café' work, special event participation and, of course, nightly work/play with our amazing members!! Call Dixie at 509-850-1489 if interested.
